UNDERSTANDING YOUR HOMEOWNERS INSURANCE DECLARATIONS PAGE

When you purchase a homeowners insurance policy, when you renew your policy, or when you make any changes to your policy, the company will give you a document called a "Declarations Page." The Declarations Page identifies the kinds and amounts of coverage you have and how much it will cost you. It is very important that you review the Declarations Page as soon as you get it to be sure it is accurate and that you know what your policy will cover. If you see any incorrect or missing information, you should contact your agent or insurance company immediately. The following example may make it easier to help understand your Declarations Page and your coverage. For more information, see our Consumer Guide to Homeowners Insurance at www.insurance.maryland.gov or contact us at 410-468-2000 for a copy.

additional coverages for your policy. Optional coverages and endorsements may be used to extend or limit your policy.
